IEA-NEA ESP Award

Purpose of the Award

The purpose of this award is to recognize an Education Support Professional who has shown outstanding accomplishments in the following areas:

- Involvement in his/her local, state and/or national association.
- Achievements in his/her professional classification.
- In promoting public education in the community.
- Enhancement of the image of education support professional in the Association, the work site or the community.

Criteria

The ESP nominees for this award must currently be an IEA-ESP member, must maintain membership during the process including if selected and have been an IEA-ESP member for three (3) years as of November 1st.

ESPs must be nominated by his/her Local Association President, Leadership within the nominee's local IEA office or by a member of the IEA Board of Directors.

Selection of Award

The selection committee will be the IEA-ESP Council. All nominations received by IEA on the official nomination form will be checked to insure that it meets all requirements of eligibility.

Recognition of Award

- The award will be presented to the recipient at the annual IEA Representative Assembly.
- The recipient will receive recognition at the IEA One Conference.
- The IEA-ESP of the Year recipient will become the nominee from the Illinois Education Association for NEA-ESP of the Year Award and will receive from NEA an expense paid trip to the annual NEA ESP Conference, as long as the nominee continues to meet all the eligibility criteria stated in this application form and meets the criteria of the NEA ESP Award.

Nomination Procedure

To insure the widest possible participation, the nomination procedure for the ESP of the Year Award shall be as follows:

- Each local association affiliate can submit one nominee through their local president. Only one member from a local may be nominated.
- If more than one members from a local is nominated, then the local shall choose which of its member's nomination shall be considered for the award.
- ESPs must be nominated by his/her Local Association President, Leadership within the nominee's local IEA office or by a member of the IEA Board of Directors.
- Only one application per individual will be accepted. (If multiple applications for the same individual are received, application eligibility will be determined by the earliest postmark received.)
- All nominations must be postmarked by January 18, 2019.
- Members of the ESP Council and alternates are not eligible for this award.

History of ESPs

Today, IEA-ESP membership is approaching 30,000 (including fee payers). IEA-ESP members are actively involved in the association at the local, state and national levels, in their community organizations, and in school restructuring efforts — as partners with their teacher and administrative colleagues.

The ESP of the Year Award

The 1995 IEA Representative Assembly approved this special annual award. This award is meant to further emphasize the contributions of Education Support Professionals to their association, schools and communities.
